Dr. Zaheeruddin Asif & Syed Rizwan Ali gave brief details about the undergraduate Programs

Dr. Zaheeruddin Asif gave a brief detail about NTHP Program- Batch 2016 to the participants

Other than educational institutions, NGOs working in education sector attempted to spread the word and motivate students to apply in the leading institutions of Pakistan which we believe is an excellent step forward.

The Dawn Education Fair was supported by Balochistan Peace Forum and during the event, Dr. Ishaq Baloch- National Party Leader visited the IBA Stall and showed keen interest in the National Talent Hunt Program and other program offered at IBA. Moreover, during the event, Dr. Zaheeruddin Asif gave a brief overview about the NTHP Program –Batch 2016 commencing from November 2015.

The representatives also shared the success stories of those students who are currently studying at IBA, belonging to Baluchistan. This played a vital role in spreading a positive impact on the audience. We were overwhelmed by the feedback from the students. It was very positive and a huge number of students showed great interest in the NTHP Program –Batch 2016. During the Dawn Education Fair, the Dawn Media Group, Serena Hotel –Quetta, Balochistan Peace Forum gave us tremendous support. Our entire team worked tirelessly to achieve the goal of a successful Educational fair. Our zealous and supportive team played a major role in putting up such an impactful event. We hope to continue our efforts to promote education in all regions of Pakistan.
